

CURRICULUM VITAE:

Prof. Dr. Reinhard BÜTTNER

Director of the Institute of General Pathology and Pathological Anatomy at Cologne University Hospital
Member of the National Academy of Sciences Leopoldina

Research focus

Generation of animal models for human diseases, research into the mechanisms of gene regulation in malignant tumors, in particular for the diagnosis and therapy prediction of malignant tumors.

Professional career

since 2011	Professor and Chairman for Pathology, University of Cologne
2006 – 2008	Dean of the Medical Faculty, University of Bonn
2001 – 2011	Professor and Chairman for Pathology, University of Bonn
1999 – 2001	Full Professor for Pathology (C3), RWTH Aachen
1996	Habilitation (University of Regensburg)
1991 – 1998	Resident of Pathology and Staff Pathologist, Regensburg
1987 – 1990	Postdoctoral research fellow Gene Center Munich and MD Anderson Cancer Center, Houston (TX), DFG Fellowship
1986 – 1987	Resident of Pathology, RWTH Aachen
1986	MD thesis (LMU Munich)
1979 – 1985	Studies of Human Medicine, Mainz, Munich, London (UK), Cologne

Contact

University Hospital of Cologne
Institute of Pathology
Kerpener Strasse 62, 50937 Cologne fon: +49 221 478-6320
e-mail: reinhard.buettner@uk-koeln.de